[redacted]
telephonically contacted the Jacksonville Office of the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION and provided the following information:

b6

[redacted] is a retired naval officer having served over 20 years. From [redacted] he was stationed at the Naval Base at Corpus Christi, Texas. He resided in base housing at the installation. While there, he frequented the OFFICER'S CLUB on an almost nightly basis for dinner. He could not recall the specific address of the club, but described it as being a corner lot close to the ocean. He described the OFFICER'S CLUB as physically being a two-story building with the club on the first floor and an area referred to as "The Penthouse" on the second floor. "The Penthouse" was an area used to house visiting dignitaries and VIP visitors to the base. While he was a patron at the OFFICER'S CLUB, it came to his attention that "high class prostitutes" were available to the visiting dignitaries and VIPs on the second floor of the OFFICER'S CLUB. The doorway leading to this upstairs area is usually padlocked and the OFFICER'S CLUB manager has the key. Only the [redacted] knew about the prostitutes, as well as the club assistant manager/bookkeeper (name unrecalled), which [redacted] described as an older white/female with blonde hair who has been employed there for at least 20 years. To [redacted] knowledge, she was still working there as of six months ago.

During his frequent visits to the OFFICER'S CLUB, [redacted] met JOHN TOWER who was then a Senator for the State of Texas. TOWER was a frequent visitor of the base from 1980 through 1986, being there approximately one weekend a month. TOWER always stayed in the upstairs area referred to as "The Penthouse" while he visited there. [redacted] has no firsthand knowledge of any activity TOWER might have had while staying there with any prostitutes. [redacted] described TOWER as a very personable individual whom [redacted] shared drinks with. [redacted] bears no animosity towards TOWER, but is very concerned with the capacity which TOWER is being considered, specifically, the Secretary of Defense.

[redacted] was recontacted. After being readvised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the nature of the interview, he provided the following information:

[redacted] is a retired [redacted] stationed in Corpus Christi, Texas from [redacted]. He retired at that time and moved off base staying in Corpus Christi until [redacted]. From 1980-1983, [redacted] was at the OFFICER'S CLUB quite frequently in the evenings during the week and almost every weekend night. After 1983, he was there only one weekend evening a month on average.

He reaffirmed the fact that Senator JOHN TOWER would visit the base on the average of one weekend a month and stay in the second floor area of the OFFICER'S CLUB referred to as "The Penthouse". "High class prostitutes" were available there, but [redacted] has no personal knowledge of TOWER'S activities regarding this. Also, [redacted] could not recall any manager's or assistant manager's name, specifically the assistant manager [redacted] described as an older white/female with blonde hair who had been employed there for perhaps 20 years.

In regards to TOWER'S use of alcohol, [redacted] made the following observations. He observed TOWER get "drunk a lot" in the company of unknown individuals whom [redacted] assumed to be staff members of TOWER. [redacted] described TOWER as a "friendly drunk" who was not a "lone drinker". TOWER would drink to the point of staggering when he walked, but never became loud, belligerent or violent. He never became argumentative and was also congenial "just like a politician". [redacted] never observed TOWER drink until he passed out, nor does he have any knowledge of TOWER drinking in his room on the second floor.

[redacted] characterized a typical evening as beginning with a cocktail hour which would last until 7:00 p.m. or 8:00 p.m. Many of the local officers would leave at this point, but TOWER and those surrounding him would stay unless TOWER had a previous commitment. TOWER constantly drank and those surrounding him would normally pay for the drinks. [REDACTED] himself bought an occasional drink for TOWER, but did not do so on a regular basis. TOWER drank a variety of mixed drinks. He would usually stay until closing time which was between 1:00 a.m. and 1:30 a.m. on Fridays and midnight on Saturdays. [REDACTED] never saw any outrageous behavior on the part of TOWER.

[REDACTED] identified some of the officers he could recall being present generally during the cocktail hour. He could not recall their first names. They include various [REDACTED] of the base by the name of [REDACTED] (late 1980-late 1982), [REDACTED] (1982-1984) and [REDACTED] (1984). [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was [REDACTED] a plane crash at the base. [REDACTED] does not know where any of these [REDACTED] are presently.

[REDACTED] also identified another officer who may be able to corroborate his statements concerning TOWER'S use of alcohol as [REDACTED] who [REDACTED] believes is now stationed in [REDACTED]. During this time frame, [REDACTED] was the rank of [REDACTED] and was [REDACTED] in Corpus Christi, Texas. [REDACTED] frequently attended the cocktail hour at the OFFICER'S CLUB when TOWER was present, but would leave shortly after it ended. [REDACTED] could not identify any other individuals involved.

[REDACTED] concluded the interview by restating that he has nothing personal against TOWER, but he is concerned with the position for which TOWER is being considered.

[redacted] General Space Corporation (GSC) and Astrotech International Corporation (AIC), Two Chatham Center, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania (PA), advised that GSC is still in existence, however, that company is inactive at present and not currently operating. GSC still has a Board of Directors, and the appointee is currently on that Board.

[redacted] advised that her records reflect the appointee was elected as a member of the Board of Directors of AIC on January 8, 1985, and presently serves in that position. On January 30, 1985, he was elected to the Board of Directors of GSC and currently holds that position.

The appointee resigned his position on both Board of Directors on April 2, 1985, due to his appointment as Ambassador to the Geneva Strategic Arms Negotiations in Switzerland, to avoid a possible conflict of interest. On April 2, 1986, the appointee was reelected to the Board of Directors of both corporations and currently holds those positions.

[redacted] advised that the appointee was invited to become a member of the Board of Directors of these two corporations by [redacted] of GSC and [redacted] of AIC. She advised that [redacted] was the former Chairman of the Board of Rockwell International Corporation (RIC) until 1983.

[redacted] advised that [redacted] would have had the closest contact with the appointee, however, he is out of town for an extended period. She advised that the only other individual currently there who would have had close contact with the appointee would be [redacted] of AIC.

On September 10, 1987, [redacted]
[redacted] Accounting Department, AIC and GSC, Two Chatham Center, Pittsburgh, PA, advised that that AIC pays its Board of Directors on a quarterly basis whether they attend meetings or not. Each Director is paid $2,500 a quarter for the fiscal year 1987, and they were paid $5,000 a quarter for the fiscal years 1985 and 1986.

Regarding GSC, [redacted] advised that until October, 1986, the members of the Board of Directors of that corporation were paid $5,000 a quarter plus $500 for every meeting attended. She advised that during that period, there was approximately one meeting a month.

[redacted] advised that since October, 1986, the members of the Board of Directors of GSC are paid $1,500 a meeting and only for the meetings that they attend. She advised that presently there are approximately two meetings a year for GSC.

On September 10, 1987, [redacted]
of AIC and [redacted] GSC, Two Chatham Center, Pittsburgh, PA, advised that he has known the appointee since the appointee was a United States Senator in Washington, D.C. He advised that they have had regular contact since on both a professional and business basis, but with little social contact.

[redacted] advised that he considers the appointee to be a fine, outstanding man in all areas and categories.

[redacted] advised that the appointee has been a very valuable addition to the Board of Directors of GSC and AIC, and has been an extremely conscientious, efficient and capable member of those Boards. He is a very articulate individual and extremely knowledgeable, especially of the political scene.

[redacted] advised that he has never noticed any indication of any drug or alcohol problems on the appointee's part, or any other problems that he might have which might tend to make him a security risk. He has never known the appointee to exhibit any sort of bias toward any group, race or religion, and has never noticed any tendency on his part to live beyond his means financially.

[] advised that he knows of absolutely nothing derogatory concerning the appointee's background, character, associates, reputation, loyalty to the country, honesty or integrity, and considers these all to be above question.

[] stated that there was absolutely no area which would give him any reservation or hesitation in highly recommending the appointee for a position of trust and confidence with the U.S. Government.
